Entertain to empower people...

Priya Singh, the favorite voice of live events, as she got many appreciations in her shows of the past years. Counting her 3rd year as a Sutradhar and Live Host, Priya hosts some of the most prestigious events as well as live events in the experiential space across the globe.

Hailing from the spiritual capital of India, Varanasi, settled in Delhi. She is known to be a witty and interactive host. Priya ensures her eyes are focused on the audience and never on a piece of paper. She is adept at content writing and prefers to curate her own scripts. Her expertise ranges through all genres of events from Government/PSUs, Wedding events, Corporate events and Sports to Social events. Priya is an MBA post-graduate from the Shobit University of Meerut and had a successful career in IT as a Business Manager for 4 years of her life. In her job also, she was fond of doing all the inhouse shows and took the charge for all the stage handling activities like award shows, annual day celebration, Team Building Activities, etc. She always considers her best when she was on stage. After 2018 she decided to pursue her passion and make her identity as a Host who will be favorite to everyone.

You must watch her live to fully understand the impact that she has on live audiences. When not anchoring or shooting, she generally travels and works on her craft.
